

REFLECTIVE CHOLESTERIC DISPLAYS EMPLOYING LINEAR POLARIZER

ABSTRACT:

The present invention relates to cholesteric displays, and more specifically, to reflective cholesteric displays employing linear polarizer(s). Two display modes have been accomplished and both of them take on black-and-white appearances. The addition of the weak linear polarizer has greatly increased the brightness of the white color while maintaining the black darkness.